

Kristy Q. Moore

KristyReports@gmail.com | linkedin.com/in/KristyQMoore

Dedicated journalist with an interest in political and current events reporting. Skilled in communication, leadership, and problem-solving, with an ability to adapt to emerging news. Passionate about using storytelling to spotlight critical issues, especially those involving rural America. Eager to embrace new opportunities and tell impactful stories.

Education

University of Wisconsin - River Falls,

Expected Graduation: May 2029

- Bachelor of Science Journalism, Bachelor of Science Communication Studies
- Honors Program Student
- Academic Scholarships: Alan E. and Lois Murray Scholarship, George P. Crist Jr. Memorial Scholarship, M. Wayne and Marian Wolf Journalism Scholarship, Freshman Journalism Scholarship, James Wychor Scholarship
- Dean's List: Fall 2025, Spring 2026

GPA: 3.937

Notable Coursework

- Introduction to Communication Studies, Interpersonal Communication, Mass Communication in the Global Age, Visual Communication, Writing for the Mass Media, Queer Media, Introduction to Mass Communication
-

Experience

Dockhand, Your Boat Club - Gull Lake

Summers 2025, 2026

- Assisted customers in selecting the ideal boat rental option for their situation to maximize enjoyment
- Meticulously cleaned boats to a like-new status after each successful rental
- Taught customers how to operate the watercraft and aided with the embarking and docking processes

Associate, Kohl's

Summer 2024

- Anticipated needs and provided customers with high quality service while upholding brand standards
 - Efficiently fulfilled online orders by selecting and organizing merchandise in-store to meet customer specifications
 - Operated cash registers, processed transactions, and provided excellent customer service
-

Professional Development

Student Voice, UWRF student newspaper

Fall 2025-Present

- Served as Editor (Fall 2026-Present) and as a Reporter (Fall 2025-Present)
- Developed a new column about campus history and wrote feature stories focused on UWRF on a deadline
- Collaborated with other editors and reporters and worked independently to conduct interviews, research, take photos, and write for articles published both online and in print
- Topics covered include AI, student government, health, and local business

SKYWARN Storm Spotter, National Weather Service

Spring 2024-Present

- Monitored and reported severe weather conditions to the NWS, contributing to timely alerts and public safety
- Collected real-time data, such as rainfall amounts and storm impacts to assist meteorologists in warning storms

Competitive Speech Team

Fall 2019-Spring 2025

- Served as Team Captain for three years, mentoring other students and helping out with weekly competitions
 - Wrote, memorized, and delivered an award-winning informative speech about Alzheimer's disease
 - Informed listeners about the science behind, dangers of, and how to properly respond to tornadoes
-

Awards and Honors

3rd Place in Business Coverage, Wisconsin Newspaper Association Better Newspaper Contest

March 2026

Honorable Mention in Health Coverage, Wisconsin Newspaper Association Better Newspaper Contest

March 2026

Rank of Special Distinction, National Speech and Debate Association

May 2025